

THEODORE PAYNE FOUNDATION
for Wild Flowers & Native Plants
ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE APPLICATION

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The purpose of the annual Artist-in-Residence (AiR) Program is to support the Theodore Payne Foundation mission, bring artists and viewers closer to native plants, landscapes and habitats, and support artists working in all artistic disciplines and media.

Mission: Theodore Payne Foundation inspires and educates Southern Californians about the beauty and ecological benefits of California native plant landscapes.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Please fill out the Artist Information and AiR Project Proposal sections. Send your completed application with supporting images to arts@theodorepayne.org and copy kitty@theodorepayne.org. Application and materials are due April 11, 2019. Notification will begin May 13, 2019.

Upon acceptance of the application and the AiR Project Proposal by the Arts Council, and the Executive Director, the artist will be formally invited to become the AiR, and will be sent a contract regarding exhibition policy and other relevant information.

PART 1 – ARTIST INFORMATION

Please provide the following information

Artist name	Date of Application	Year for which you are applying to be in residence
Website or link to online portfolio
Facebook page or link to online portfolio
Email address
Phone number
Mailing Address

PART 2 – AiR PROJECT PROPOSAL

Areas you wish to pursue during your residency (check all that apply):

- Ceramics
- Fibers
- Metals/Jewelry
- Printmaking
- Photography
- Drawing
- Painting
- Other _____

Please answer the following two questions. Please limit your answers to two pages, double spaced. In addition, please include 5-10 images of previous work. Attach images (in JPEG format, no more than 2MB per image) to email, provide URL for website, or send (c/o Arts Council Chair, Theodore Payne Foundation 10459 Tuxford Street, Sun Valley, CA 91352) a USB flash drive or CD. Mailed materials will not be returned.

- Briefly describe your AiR Project and your exhibition based on that project. When envisioning and describing your AiR exhibition, please keep in mind that the Theodore Payne Gallery is a multi-purpose room and is used for meetings, receptions, and other Foundation events. Safety is a prime consideration for staff and visitors to the gallery, and for the artist's work.
 - 1) Please refer to Exhibition requirements on the information sheets.
 - 2) Describe how your AiR Project would aid the Theodore Payne Foundation and support its mission.

The Arts Council and the Executive Director reserve the right to reject the artist's Artist-in-Residence application based on the AiR Project and Description.

By submitting the AiR application/project proposal, the artist agrees that they have read and understood the conditions set forth in the Information Pages, and that they will follow said conditions.